ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR STATE SENATOR.

WHEELER.—We are authorized to announce SAM WHEELER as a candidate for State Senator to represent this district; subject to the action of the Democratic party.

COOPER.—We are authorized to announce Spencer Cooper for State Senator of the district, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

SATURDAY is the primary in Morgan, and we should like to see every Democrat in the county vote for Ben Murphy for Assessor.

CASTORIA.

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

It is currently rumored here that at the Fourth precinct, Torrent, on the evening of the late primary, a man not on the board entered the booth, counted the ballots, and then burned them. If this be a fact, and it seems to be pretty well authenticated, the vote of that precinct should be thrown out and all parties, including the election officers, should be prosecuted to the extent of the law. The old saw that "all is fair in love, war and politics," has its limits, and the line should be drawn in cases like the one here presented. Under the law the ballots are to be preserved for six months in case of a contest, and the penalty for violating the provisions of the election laws is a very severe one, imposing a fine of from $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence. Enforce the law.

Fight Will Be Bitter.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continental recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. H. Beall, of Beall, Miss., has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvements came at once, and four bottles entirely cured her." Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

THE OLD MAN'S OFF.

To the Democrats of the 34th Senatorial district:

After due consideration, and realizing that it takes money to play politics successfully—a commodity which I am unfortunately short on—I have decided to withdraw from the race for State Senator. When I first announced no one had expressed a desire for the position, and as it looked like the office would go a-begging, I came out for it, thinking that under the circumstances I could pull through without the use of filthy lucre. I have been unable physically and financially to make a canvas of the district and meet the dear people, and am thus at a disadvantage, while others of Wolfe county's citizens, whom Fate has blessed with funds, being anxious for the nomination, for the sake of harmony—a goodly supply of which may be needed for the success of the party—I am out of the race. But in declining at this late date I would be an ingrate did I not recognize the faithfulness of those friends who have stood by me through all, and to them I shall ever be most grateful.

Now, with malice toward none, good will for all, and an earnest desire for the success of the Democratic party, I am,

Faithfully yours to command,
SPENCER COOPER.
HAZEL GREEN, KY., Nov. 28.

A Frightened Horse,

Running like mad down the street dumping the occupants, or a hundred other accidents, are every day occurrences. It behooves everybody to have a reliable salve handy and there's none as good as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Burns, Cuts, Sores, Eczema and Piles disappear quickly under its soothing effect. 25c., at all druggists.

It is maybe not our put, but every good citizen should do all within his power to eliminate evil from elections, and to that end support the best man for office. Ben Murphy is an honest citizen of Morgan county, and as he has consented to run for Assessor of that county it behooves every good citizen in the county to give him their votes. Ben Murphy is not only a good man, in all that the term implies—a good neighbor, accommodating, clever, affable and charitable. He is about the only Democrat of the name, barring Mike, of Bushton, Ill., and looked at from that standpoint he is "a diamond midst the debris." Taken up one side and down the other Ben Murphy is as good a citizen as Morgan county or any other county can produce, and every man in the county should support him in the coming primary, Saturday, Dec. 3, 1904.

A Costly Mistake.

Blunders are sometimes very expensive. Occasionally life itself is the price of a mistake, but you'll never be wrong if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills for Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Headache or Bowel troubles. They are gentle, yet thorough. 25c., at all druggists.

DEMOCRATS of Morgan, do not fail to go to the polls on Saturday and vote for Ben Murphy for Assessor. Then you can sleep with a good conscience and eat with a good appetite.

We like to see gratitude, but do not like to see a man overdo the thing. A few days since we loaned our friend, Rev. Barney Blankenship, our meat chopper or sausage grinder, and in return he brought us a large mess of sausage and a spare rib, either of which would have paid us doubly for the use of the grinder. But we appreciate the generosity of he and his good lady, and hope their larder may ever be full of the best in the land.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Of Lykins Lodge, No. 305, I. O. O. F., Campton, Ky.

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Grand Master of the universe to call from this transitory existence to that undiscovered clime from which no traveler has yet returned, our beloved brother and Noble Grand, H. H. Stamper, on the 11th day of November, 1904.

RESOLVED, 1st. That in the death of Brother H. H. Stamper this lodge has lost a true and trusty brother, a faithful, competent and impartial Noble Grand, one that was at all times ready, able and willing to extend to a brother and friend a hand in friendship, grasp it in love, and extend congratulations in truth, and to extend charity and benevolence wherever and whenever it appeared to him necessary for the relief of brother, friend or neighbor.

RESOLVED 2d. That in the death of Brother Stamper the community has lost a true citizen and physician, his family a kind and devoted husband and father, and one whose loss we all greatly deplore and greatly miss.

RESOLVED, 3d. That we extend to the heart-broken widow, orphan children, parents, brothers, sisters, and devoted friends of Brother Stamper our greatest sympathy in their great loss and sad bereavement, and commend them to the God of the Universe for comfort and aid in time of need, trouble and tribulations, who has promised to be a husband to the widow, a father to the fatherless, and cast away all sorrows and troubles.

RESOLVED, 4th. That the members of this lodge in token of the respect they have for Brother Stamper wear the usual badge of mourning 30 days, and that these resolutions be spread at large on the records of this lodge, and a copy of the same be delivered to the family of Brother Stamper.

RESOLVED, 5th. That these resolutions be published in the HAZEL GREEN HERALD for one issue.

Lexington last week between Gen. James Clay and Capt. John B. Castleman, the former censuring the latter because he failed to salute him as General of the Confederate Veterans. The latter replied that he recognized no rank in civil life, when the latter started to hit him. It was childish in the extreme on the part of the grandson of the great commoner.

John Cecil and Jep Halsey, who took in the World's Fair for a few days and toured Southern Missouri for ten days, returned Saturday night very much pleased with their outing. Jep killed two wild turkeys while along the Ozark Mountains, and John had the pleasure of knowing that he crippled one, and the misfortune not to get it. While hunting and the guests of a Mr. Hatfield, they saw a flock of about 75 or 100 turkeys come to a creek for water. John tried to get five or six in range at one time, but Jep, getting impatient, fired his pistol and killed one. The other he killed the next day.
